

EAPC Early Researcher Award

Criteria for applications

The following must be evident in applications:

- Strongly documented interest and skills in palliative care research
- The candidate should be at the beginning of a research career and hold a higher degree, PhD or equivalent
- Evidence of academic development
- Quality of the application – detailed research methods, relevance to palliative care
- Environment / research group the candidate has worked within
- Evidence of publications and presentations of work at conferences or similar events
- Evidence of scientific awards, if any
- The candidate should be able and willing to give a plenary lecture in English at the 8th World Research Congress of the EAPC
- Applicants from all over the world are welcome

Candidates can apply themselves, or be nominated by supervisor or similar.

Application form can be downloaded from the congress website.

Deadline: 30 November 2013